The school will be closed for pupils this day for staff training on reading.

After School Provision

A number of parents have enquired about after school provision. A letter went home yesterday (Thursday 19th Oct) about a free service offered by Hackney Marsh Partnership Youth Hub for children aged 7-12. They also offer a free pick up service from our school. The hub is a 10 minute walk away.

The hub was visited by Ms Prevett and Ms Holohan who were very impressed by the provision offered. Membership forms are available via the school office or the hub directly. If you would like to find out more, please see the contact details for the hub on the letter.

One of our whole school priorities is READING!

We want our children to become confident readers and develop a love of reading.

Please encourage your child to read every day. The Islington Reading Road Map is coming soon...

INSET Day—Monday 3rd December

Year 6 poetry: Year 6 have been learning about World War II and have written poems through the eyes of an evacuee.

Evacuation By Naa - Year 6

There's a boy in the station,
He is in my class,
We are in the period of evacuation,
It is as bad as dropping glass.
He is with the teacher,
Who is checking his tag,
He looks like a creature,
His name is Charlie Bag.
Charlie Bag looks sad,
Around his neck a name tag.
There's a boy in the station,
He is in my class,
We are in the period of evacuation,
It is as bad as dropping glass.

The Return of the Evacuees

Everyone is carrying a tear on their face,
Crying in happiness to meet in this place,
Mother, child and father hugging forever,
It is cloudy and soon going to rain but no one cares about the weather.
Everybody is happy to be back,
With their original wolf pack.
The tears have stopped coming,
The thunder is like a big drum drumming.
Everyone is going back to their house,
They are never going to stop talking and be a mouse.
By Eliza - Year 6

Thank you to everyone who came along to our portrait exhibition. It was thoroughly enjoyed by pupils, parents and staff. A special thank you to Ms Green for organising the afternoon.
